FLORENCE WRESTLING TONITE 8:00

Two highly-interesting wrestling matches are slated for tonight at the Florence Armory when Luke Fields will go versus Gus McCarthy in a reverse battle, and baby Charlie Keene and Pat O'Brien in a wild tag team bout. Fields will be out to annihilate McCarthy to even things up after the steady decision McCarthy gave last Friday while refereeing a bout in which Luke and his brother, Doc, lost. The hundreds of fans who were gathered at ringside agreed with Luke that McCarthy had deliberately favored Herb Larsen and Rube Wright in that match. Luke, as well as yelling fans, wanted McCarthy to come out of the dressing room and settle things down and there, but McCarthy refused. McCarthy did agree, after lengthy bargaining to meet Luke in tonight's main event.

Taking all things into consideration, this should be one of the best matches seen here in a long while. McCarthy weighs 214, while Luke is lighter at 196.

Going into the tag bout, Carter will weigh 231, his partner, Garibaldi, 220. O'Brien weighs 218 and Keene 206.

Bell time is at 8 o'clock.

Promoter: Bill Jobe, Florence

FSTC Stunt Night Acts To Be Screened

Progressive acts for the Florence State Teachers College Stunt Night, March 20, will be given a close look by a screening committee. The committee will determine which acts will be entered in the program. The annual affair, sponsored by the Student Government Association, will be held in Coffee High School Auditorium.

Members of the screening committee are: Miss Guy's Shepherd, associate professor of English; Dr. Turner Allen, professor of political science; Carolyn C. C. Eddy, Eddy Abranson, Paul Hodges, Joyce Campbell, Jimmy Palmer, David Robb and Frankie Thomas.

Campus organizations representing in the screening process will be the Future Teachers of America, Wesley Fellowship, Keller Hall, English and Behavioral Clubs, Willingham Hall, speech class, the college choir and Powers Hall.

The screening committee is headed by FSTC, main announcer at station WOLW. In Florence, Jimmy Norwood and Bob Robinson have been announced as stage managers.

Final judging will be based on the originality, quality of performance, audience response and production. The winning student will receive first prize money amounting to $45.

College Music Professor Honored

The award of a $100 scholarship and an appearance with the Montgomery Symphony Orchestra on April 17 has been made to Thomas Gentry, assistant professor of music at Florence State College. The award is one of two made in a recent statewide audition.

Miss Barbara Freeman, a soprano of the Birmingham College, Montgomery, was the recipient of the award in voice.

Gentry, a teacher of piano, and syndicated with the Cecil Frank Synchronic variations. He is a native of Tusculum, and received his undergraduate music education at the University of Alabama. The Master's degree in music was earned at Indiana University.

Over the past weekend, Gentry and Miss Ruth Temple of the University of Alabama music faculty, gave a piano concert for four hands in the recital hall of the new music building at the University. It was the first concert to be held in the building. They also appeared at a half hour concert over the state's educational TV channel.

The pair had played a similar concert earlier in Florence.

Sister Sal' In Lions' Minstrel

The Florence Lions Club will present one of Alabama's most talented musicians, Mrs. Clark Wilson at its minstrel Saturday night at Coffee High School. This feature, a guest artist will be known to you as "Sister Sal".

Tomorrow's paper will announce who another star "The Country Boy" is in everyday life. Some people believe him to be Jim Spain because he goes about re-reading his exposed scalp.

Tickets are available now from members of the Florence Lions Club, Band Parents, and members of the Coffee band. They will also be on sale at the box office Saturday night. The club promises you an enjoyable evening as well as a
