

Bite Now—Pay Later—

Anyone who has ever nursed a mouthful of misery until he had the money to pay for proper dental care will agree that it is a bitter-sweet growth of two dental pay plans.

In the first type of financial operation a patient receives necessary services and the making of payments to a bank. The bank has a contract with the dental society to which our friendly dentist belongs.

The dentist gets his money promptly, the patient gets his relief, and the bank extracts interest from the patient—without novocain.

Almost $90 million has been financed in California alone by post-payment plans over the last 10 years, according to the American Dental Association.

For the fellow whose choppers are operating without any trouble, the pay-before-you-ache plans offer tooth-ache opportunities to anticipate trouble with the ivories.

Dental society "service corporations," commercial insurance, and industrial and government programs offer this protection in varying measures.

The United States Public Health Service reports that almost one million persons spent almost $11 million dollars in 1962 for some form of payment plan.

So—see your dentist THREE times this year—the last two times for checkups, the first time to investigate the financial aspects of care for your teeth.

Oh, sure, your favorite tooth sever will ease your pain at once, if you're in misery. But it's not fair, for you'll be waiting for his dough while you enjoy a long series of dental visits.

Warmer Under The Roof

The next time you blow your hot and someone tags you as being "hot-headed," stop not be talking through his hat.

A University of Wisconsin medical researcher, Dr. Skoda Afonso, has been using a tiny temperature measuring device to test the temperature of the blood's temperature as it comes through the body.

The hottest, blood, he finds, comes from the liver and the brain. Dr. Afonso's "analysis: High-ratio metabolic activity (speed) at which the brain and liver burn fuel) is responsible.

Those organs become (relative-ly) hot from hard work, just as a hard-working machine would warm up including the machine that is your body.

So—don't let your emotional temperature rise if someone calls you "hot-headed." It's the temperature in-centrally in the matter—a sign that the old brain is working in over-drive.

But if he calls you a "hot-headed, hot-livered" double adjective, . . .

Now We Know-- Some type of fish have a hearing range comparable to that of man, and Prof. John E. Bardach, according to Bardach, whose skin-diving research is done with hydrophones, states that two key phrases may be, "Go away, I love you," and "I love you."

Now, any fisherman who dips a line frequently enough to know those days when fish aren't biting, no matter what the bait, can give the professor the following phrase for his finny vocabulary.

Obviously, denizens of the underwater world have the words for, "Nuts to you, bud."

Letters To The Editor

DECATUR AREA MAN HAS ALL THE ANSWERS Editor: I read an editorial account of an editorial you write

Editor: I read an editorial account of an editorial you write in the Tri-Cities Daily, dated May 10, 1963, in which you stated that the Birmingham Post-Herald is a "right-wing" newspaper.

There is no such thing as an equality within the races or among the races, physically, mentally, financially or socially and only a fool will say so or try to establish such.

All this about the Federal Government wanting to help the negro is baloney. It is nothing more than the two-bit politician using the negro for a political football and it has brought nothing but strife and discord.

Now if the Alabama Newspaper Editor wants to really help the negroes, and I think most of them do, they need to help them get the right kind of education and to help them get the right kind of job.

I read in a newspaper that Robert F. Kennedy said, "The white man did not make the negro. The negro made the white man."

The white man did not make the negro. The negro made the white man. I don't know what the different races and Robert F. Kennedy is not one man's word. There is no other thing in the Bible about different races or anything to justify integration.
