Airliners Soon Will Beat Clock Across Country

By ROBERT EUNSON SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—In the not distant future you can take an airplane off to New York and land in San Francisco before you took off. This is the opinion of the man who won the first Bendix Trophy Race in 1931 and went on to set a world record of 12 hours. "We now have fighter planes in the sky... Gen. Jimmy Doolittle said in an interview. "It is only a matter of time before we will be flying across the continent in less than three hours... The air and the three-hour time differential from coast to coast will be argued to give New York and become the first man to cross the continent in 10 hours. The Bendix Trophy Race was set in 1934 by Edward G. Bremer and was won by Jimmy Doolittle. It was a record of 15 hours and 20 minutes.

Duller Stirs New Flareup in Panama

PANAMA (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles' latest campaign in the Panama Canal zone today has a new twist, according to anti-Americanists here. The secretary told a news conference in Washington yesterday that the United States would not give the canal zone which it rights to the United States. Dulles said that the entire exclusion of the exercise by the Republic of Panama of any such sovereign rights, power or authority. His statement landed squarely in the middle of relations between Panama and the United States.
