Ollie Johnson, Former Sheffield Resident, Dies

Ollie Lee Johnson, 86, 4651 Old Negroes Road, Tucker, Ga., former resident of Sheffield, died at a private hospital in Atlanta, Tuesday night.

Funeral services were held this afternoon at 2 p.m. at the Chestnut Grove Baptist Church in Grayson, Ga. Rev. W. H. Kinsey officiated and officials and employees of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Co. of Birmingham and Atlanta served as pallbearers and honorary pallbearers.

Speech Center Director To Attend Meeting

Ed Matie, director of the Speech and Hearing Center at Florence State Teachers College, will attend the fall meeting of the Alabama Speech Ass'n. at the University of Alabama, Oct. 28. Mr. Matie has been asked to serve on a panel which will discuss speech therapy in Alabama.

The morning portion of the conference will be devoted to a general meeting of the entire Speech Ass'n.

During the afternoon there will be sectional meetings for various interest groups such as workshop in speech and hearing therapy, radio and television activities for schools and the improvements of speech teaching in Alabama.

Burrell-Slater Enrollment Up

Burrell-Slater High School, Negro school in Florence, began this year with the highest enrollment in its history of the school. This year the enrollment is 190.

Among the special guests who have appeared at the school this year for assembly programs are Dr. Hatch, director of instructions of the State Department of Education; Mrs. H. H. McSwain, representative of the National Livestock Bureau; and Chief L. D. (Bob) Lovelace of the Florence Fire Department.

Grenade Hurlled Into Red-Tinged Labor Office

ROME 26 — A hand grenade hurled early today into the headquarters of the Communist-dominated Italian General Confederation of Labor shattered all windows of the building. One person was slightly injured.

Officers for various clubs in the school have been elected with Paul...

food for thought give her credit for knowing a good thing when she dreams it!

Mothers, when studying begins to drag and little minds begin to wander, give your children a mid-afternoon pick-up with a tasty, ZEIGLER'S HOT DOG! ... and Mothers, take time to enjoy one yourself ... you'll be sure to understand why children love ZEIGLER'S CONEYS, because they're "Seasoned to Please." What's more they're chock full of vitamins and nutrition. They're all-meat goodness as only ZEIGLER knows how to make them!
