

Transfers U.S. Men To Europe Being Opposed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Opposition arose in Congress today to any speedy transfer of additional American troops to Europe.

President Truman's announcement that more U.S. soldiers will be sent to Europe has been met with a possible demand from lawmakers.

Detailed information on other nations' troop plans to Europe was not made available to the United States until it was stripped of military reserves at home.

Senators of both parties said Secretary of State Acheson and Secretary of the Army Pace will be called on by congressional committees to report on these points immediately after their return from the Brussels conference.

Foreign ministers of the Atlantic Pact nations have agreed to try to assemble under the command of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower a 1,000-man force by the end of 1953 to guard Western Europe against possible Soviet aggression.

President Truman told a news conference yesterday he will know by the end of the week whether many American troops eventually will be involved.

Transfers U.S. Men To Europe Being Opposed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Opposition arose in Congress today to any speedy transfer of additional American troops to Europe.

President Truman's announcement that more U.S. soldiers will be sent to Europe has been met with a possible demand from lawmakers.

Detailed information on other nations' troop plans to Europe was not made available to the United States until it was stripped of military reserves at home.

Senators of both parties said Secretary of State Acheson and Secretary of the Army Pace will be called on by congressional committees to report on these points immediately after their return from the Brussels conference.

Foreign ministers of the Atlantic Pact nations have agreed to try to assemble under the command of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower a 1,000-man force by the end of 1953 to guard Western Europe against possible Soviet aggression.

President Truman told a news conference yesterday he will know by the end of the week whether many American troops eventually will be involved.

Negro Homes In White Sections Oked

CITY OF BIRMINGHAM Loses Zoning Case In Federal Court

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—The City of Birmingham has lost a federal court case in which it sought to prevent Negroes from occupying homes in white sections of the city.

The U.S. district court for the Southern District of Alabama found that the city's zoning ordinance violated the law.

The decision said the city's zoning ordinance was unconstitutional and a power that is unconstitutional cannot be sustained by the States and their municipalities.

The city's zoning ordinance was unconstitutional and a power that is unconstitutional cannot be sustained by the States and their municipalities.

The city's zoning ordinance was unconstitutional and a power that is unconstitutional cannot be sustained by the States and their municipalities.

West Holds Out New Offers of Peace To Reds

BUT BRITAIN, FRANCE AND UNITED STATES TO REARM GERMAN

BRUSSELS (AP)—West Germany made it clear in the Big Three today that it would make no concessions to Russia and arms to Germany today.

Britain, France and the United States have accepted in principle Russia's proposal for a Big Four conference on the unification of divided Germany.

The three Western powers are known to have stipulated however that the Russian demand for the abolition of problems that have been causing East-West friction.

The Big Three foreign ministers approved the notes last night. Today the ministers of Belgium, Luxembourg and the Netherlands met to look at them.

The representatives of the five nations today agreed to "reorganize" their joint military planning setup to conform to the new international command relationship.

South Koreans Are Cashing With N. Korean Comrades

South of The 38th Parallel

By OLEN CLEMENTS

TOKYO (AP)—Beachhead defenders of the U. S. 10th Corps held their ground in North Korea.

The planned withdrawal was North Korea's first step in a drive to the sea.

Members of the group said they have asked new legislation to permit greater controls over food prices and rents.

They gave reporters a statement which made these main points as to why.

Unions Demand Protection From H.C.L.

Pay Increases Must Match Rise In Cost Of Living, Warning

By STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Union leaders today demanded that any government wage controls allow for cost-of-living.

A United labor policy committee headed by AFL President William Green and CIO President Philip Murray took this request to President Truman today.

Members of the group said they have asked new legislation to permit greater controls over food prices and rents.

They gave reporters a statement which made these main points as to why.

Transfers U.S. Men To Europe Being Opposed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Opposition arose in Congress today to any speedy transfer of additional American troops to Europe.

President Truman's announcement that more U.S. soldiers will be sent to Europe has been met with a possible demand from lawmakers.

Detailed information on other nations' troop plans to Europe was not made available to the United States until it was stripped of military reserves at home.

Senators of both parties said Secretary of State Acheson and Secretary of the Army Pace will be called on by congressional committees to report on these points immediately after their return from the Brussels conference.

Transfers U.S. Men To Europe Being Opposed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Opposition arose in Congress today to any speedy transfer of additional American troops to Europe.

President Truman's announcement that more U.S. soldiers will be sent to Europe has been met with a possible demand from lawmakers.

Detailed information on other nations' troop plans to Europe was not made available to the United States until it was stripped of military reserves at home.

Senators of both parties said Secretary of State Acheson and Secretary of the Army Pace will be called on by congressional committees to report on these points immediately after their return from the Brussels conference.

Transfers U.S. Men To Europe Being Opposed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Opposition arose in Congress today to any speedy transfer of additional American troops to Europe.

President Truman's announcement that more U.S. soldiers will be sent to Europe has been met with a possible demand from lawmakers.

Detailed information on other nations' troop plans to Europe was not made available to the United States until it was stripped of military reserves at home.

Senators of both parties said Secretary of State Acheson and Secretary of the Army Pace will be called on by congressional committees to report on these points immediately after their return from the Brussels conference.

Transfers U.S. Men To Europe Being Opposed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Opposition arose in Congress today to any speedy transfer of additional American troops to Europe.

President Truman's announcement that more U.S. soldiers will be sent to Europe has been met with a possible demand from lawmakers.

Detailed information on other nations' troop plans to Europe was not made available to the United States until it was stripped of military reserves at home.

Senators of both parties said Secretary of State Acheson and Secretary of the Army Pace will be called on by congressional committees to report on these points immediately after their return from the Brussels conference.

Transfers U.S. Men To Europe Being Opposed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Opposition arose in Congress today to any speedy transfer of additional American troops to Europe.

President Truman's announcement that more U.S. soldiers will be sent to Europe has been met with a possible demand from lawmakers.

Detailed information on other nations' troop plans to Europe was not made available to the United States until it was stripped of military reserves at home.

Senators of both parties said Secretary of State Acheson and Secretary of the Army Pace will be called on by congressional committees to report on these points immediately after their return from the Brussels conference.

Transfers U.S. Men To Europe Being Opposed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Opposition arose in Congress today to any speedy transfer of additional American troops to Europe.

President Truman's announcement that more U.S. soldiers will be sent to Europe has been met with a possible demand from lawmakers.

Detailed information on other nations' troop plans to Europe was not made available to the United States until it was stripped of military reserves at home.

Senators of both parties said Secretary of State Acheson and Secretary of the Army Pace will be called on by congressional committees to report on these points immediately after their return from the Brussels conference.

Shopping Days to Christmas