Mendes-France Gets Vacation

PARIS (AP)—Premier Pierre Mendes-France left here Sunday for a weekend visit to Naples before beginning important talks next Tuesday with Italian premier Mario Scelba.

No details of the trip were announced by the premier.

Informal sources said yesterday Mendes-France planned to offer Italy a role in the development of Mediterranean relations.

He discussed joint North African development plans last October with West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer. In the French view, West Germany could contribute machinery and equipment.

He also visited the Saar region, where he met with French officials and discussed the Saar's future.
