

Chinese Horseshoatener Cranked Back to Atomic Expansion Looms Tennessee Valley Two American Divisions In Escape South Across The Icy Chongchun; Crisis Is Grave

RESIDENT of the Chamber of Commerce of Sheffield is re- above, Sheffield automobile dealer. Mr. Dye will take re- sary. He has just completed one year of three-year term on the board of directors of the Sheffield Chamber. Mr. Dye Sheffield in 1937 and has been in the automobile business since that time. He is also a member of the Sheffield Kiwanis club—(Staff Photo)

Standing Progress Made STC In Present Year

Annual report of Florence achers College to the Association of Colleges in Education shows con- progress by the local in- stitute according to figures re- ceived by Florence Times- Democrat. E. Lund on Mem-

Industrial ers Break Paralysis Job Is Slow me Areas As h Talk Nears 300

The Associated Press reports that the strike in the Birmingham area is near normal operations. The fight over job remained in. It looked like a slow us clean but resumption activities in some of the sections of the storm belt with toll mounted to nearly the savage weekend storms upped over areas in 22 East-Midwest States. Damages to grow. Uncounted thousands a heavy snow or sev- today to hamper the situa- tion (E. P. Col. 8)

Public Requested Give Clothing to County Children

Because of two years of crop failures in Lauderdale county many rural children will not be able to continue in school this year unless they can get clothing. W. H. Walker, county superintendent of education, reported today. The situation has become critical in many sections of the county. Parents are asking for clothing that they do not need are asked to contact Mr. Walker, and the items will be turned over to the rental allowance can be used, and especially clothing for children six to 15 years of age. The items should be turned in to the county office. The public has always responded to appeals for aid, the superintendent said, and it is hoped that a special effort will be made this season as the need is so great.

Tuscumbia Board Says No More Right Turns On Red Lights

The Tuscumbia board of commissioners reported in an ordinance Tuesday night permitting motorists to turn right on a red traffic signal. The commission said that in the future full observance of all traffic signals will be enforced. The ordinance was passed at the meeting of the board on Tuesday night. The ordinance will be effective on Monday, December 4, 1950.

Projects Costing Billion Dollars May Be In Offing As America Girds For War

Expansion of TVA Power Facilities Is Being Speeded
By HARRY SNYDER
AP Wire Staff Service
WASHINGTON (AP)—Big new projects costing billions of dollars are being planned for the Tennessee Valley. The Tennessee Valley Authority is expected to announce plans for a new dam and power plant in the near future. The projects are being planned to provide power for the valley and to improve navigation. The projects are being planned to provide power for the valley and to improve navigation. The projects are being planned to provide power for the valley and to improve navigation.

Two Garden Clubs To Sponsor Tuscumbia Lighting Ceremony

The Tuscumbia Garden Club and the Tuscumbia Garden Club are sponsoring a lighting ceremony for the new Tuscumbia High School. The ceremony will be held on December 1, 1950. The new school is one of the largest in the state and will provide for the needs of the growing population of the valley.

U.S. Seeking Showdown On Aggression By Red Chinese

U.S. officials are seeking a showdown with the Chinese Communists over their aggression in Korea. The U.S. is demanding that the Chinese Communists stop their military operations in Korea and withdraw their forces from the peninsula. The U.S. is also demanding that the Chinese Communists stop their support of the North Korean forces.

Conformation Hours Of Merchants Group Approved At Meet

The Merchants Association of Florence has approved a plan for a conformation of hours for the merchants in the city. The plan is to have the merchants open for business from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. on weekdays and from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturdays. The plan is to be implemented in the near future.

Cost of Living Is Now Highest In History

The cost of living in Florence is now at its highest level in history. The index for the month of October 1950 was 174.8 per cent of the 1926-30 base. This is an increase of 0.2 per cent over the previous peak of 174.5 in August 1950. The increase is due to a rise in the price of food and clothing.

Public Requested Give Clothing to County Children

Because of two years of crop failures in Lauderdale county many rural children will not be able to continue in school this year unless they can get clothing. W. H. Walker, county superintendent of education, reported today. The situation has become critical in many sections of the county. Parents are asking for clothing that they do not need are asked to contact Mr. Walker, and the items will be turned over to the rental allowance can be used, and especially clothing for children six to 15 years of age. The items should be turned in to the county office. The public has always responded to appeals for aid, the superintendent said, and it is hoped that a special effort will be made this season as the need is so great.

Tuscumbia Board Says No More Right Turns On Red Lights

The Tuscumbia board of commissioners reported in an ordinance Tuesday night permitting motorists to turn right on a red traffic signal. The commission said that in the future full observance of all traffic signals will be enforced. The ordinance was passed at the meeting of the board on Tuesday night. The ordinance will be effective on Monday, December 4, 1950.

AIKEN GETS H BOMB PLANT—The cross symbol on this map locates the site of the South Carolina which is being built by the Atomic Energy Commission. The location chosen by the Atomic Energy Commission is in the town of Aiken, South Carolina. The plant will produce the bomb itself—AP Wirephoto Map

U.S. Seeking Showdown On Aggression By Red Chinese

U.S. officials are seeking a showdown with the Chinese Communists over their aggression in Korea. The U.S. is demanding that the Chinese Communists stop their military operations in Korea and withdraw their forces from the peninsula. The U.S. is also demanding that the Chinese Communists stop their support of the North Korean forces.

New Chimes Will Awaken Leighton People Christmas

People of Leighton will be awakened Christmas morning by the pealing of chimes ringing out from the Leighton Baptist Church. The chimes were installed by the church members as a gift to the community. The chimes will be rung every Christmas morning.

Colbert Negro Kids Need Clothing, Shoes

Many Negro children in the area of Colbert County are in need of clothing and shoes. The Colbert County Board of Education is collecting donations of clothing and shoes for these children. The board is asking for donations of winter coats, sweaters, and shoes.

Chinese Red Offensive In Korea Confronts The United States With Gravest Decisions Since World War Two

The Chinese Red offensive in Korea has brought the United States to a critical juncture. The U.S. is faced with the decision of whether to intervene in Korea to stop the Chinese advance. The U.S. is also faced with the decision of whether to support the United Nations forces in Korea. The U.S. is also faced with the decision of whether to withdraw its forces from Korea.

Believe MacArthur Will Prevent Military 'Rout'

U.S. military officials believe that General MacArthur will prevent a military rout of the Chinese forces in Korea. The officials believe that MacArthur's leadership and tactical skill will be sufficient to stop the Chinese advance. The officials also believe that MacArthur's forces will be able to hold their ground in the face of the Chinese offensive.

Chinese Communists Are Using Tanks For The First Time Now

Chinese Communists are using tanks for the first time in their military operations in Korea. The tanks are being used to break through the lines of the United Nations forces. The Chinese Communists are also using tanks to support their infantry units. The use of tanks is a significant development in the Korean conflict.

Two American Divisions In Escape South Across The Icy Chongchun; Crisis Is Grave

Two American divisions are in a desperate race to escape south across the icy Chongchun River. The divisions are being pursued by Chinese forces. The situation is grave, and the divisions are in a precarious position. The divisions are being pursued by Chinese forces. The situation is grave, and the divisions are in a precarious position.

Mahoney Asks Use Of A-Bomb Against China

Senator Mahoney has asked for the use of an atomic bomb against China. He believes that the use of an atomic bomb is necessary to stop the Chinese advance in Korea. He also believes that the use of an atomic bomb is necessary to prevent the Chinese from attacking the United States.

Asks That Ultimatum Be Served On Their Masters In Russia

Senator Mahoney has asked that an ultimatum be served on the Soviet Union. He believes that the Soviet Union is supporting the Chinese advance in Korea. He also believes that the Soviet Union is supporting the Chinese advance in China. He is asking that the United States demand that the Soviet Union stop its support of the Chinese.

Believe MacArthur Will Prevent Military 'Rout'

U.S. military officials believe that General MacArthur will prevent a military rout of the Chinese forces in Korea. The officials believe that MacArthur's leadership and tactical skill will be sufficient to stop the Chinese advance. The officials also believe that MacArthur's forces will be able to hold their ground in the face of the Chinese offensive.

Chinese Red Offensive In Korea Confronts The United States With Gravest Decisions Since World War Two

The Chinese Red offensive in Korea has brought the United States to a critical juncture. The U.S. is faced with the decision of whether to intervene in Korea to stop the Chinese advance. The U.S. is also faced with the decision of whether to support the United Nations forces in Korea. The U.S. is also faced with the decision of whether to withdraw its forces from Korea.

Believe MacArthur Will Prevent Military 'Rout'

U.S. military officials believe that General MacArthur will prevent a military rout of the Chinese forces in Korea. The officials believe that MacArthur's leadership and tactical skill will be sufficient to stop the Chinese advance. The officials also believe that MacArthur's forces will be able to hold their ground in the face of the Chinese offensive.

SANTA SAYS: The good that is better than the good that is. It's good right now to get shopping done.

SHOPPING DAYS TO CHRISTMAS

Maximum temperature for the 24-hour period ending 6:30 o'clock this morning, 41; minimum, 25; no precipitation. Sunrise 7:30; sunset 4:38. Pilewick lake stage this morning 10.5 feet. Wind with Tuesday's is a rise of 51 feet.