Married For 80 Years

WHEN I WAS

When I was a girl they used to say that bread was the staff of life. It's an expression that you still hear, of course, but not so much as you still hear, of course, but not so much as you seem that you still hear, of course, but not have you seem to be still hear and wonderful about the small of home-backed bread welfting in from the kitchen. And how the men folk loved it, after a hard days at work in the faild.

"But as I grew older, I Began to realize that neither bread nor anything else you can see, touch, and small is the staff of life. Sound fump? Well, think it over, and you'll see what I mean. Our greatest strength comes from the things that aren't namplie. The spiritual things, I gress you'd call them.
