VERY FEW OF US live in architecturally perfect surroundings, but tecturally perfect surroundings, but to continuous and the surrounding of perfection can be feeders on the surround us. Don't throw up your hands in discouragement over a long, narrow dining or living room, a dark bed-room or a cheerless kitchen. These are problems which professional endergone of the surrounding of living room, a dark bed-room or a cheerless kitchen. These are problems which professional feeders and solve almost to perfect on the surrounding solve almost to perfect on the surrounding solve almost to perfect on the surrounding solve almost to perfect of many a room and make it obtained to the surrounding solve a feeling that you want to push your walls out to give a feeling of space and light, here are some sure-fire tracks to give you that effect.

As every woman knows, light colors tend to make her figure larger while the dark shades appear to hook lighter and larger the from took lighter and larger the from took lighter and larger the from the surrounding shades of wallpaper such as cool blues, greys, greens, cream, lovey and oyster white make rooms, look larger. Reduce Room Size

With These Tips On the other hand, if you have tremendously large rooms and you want to pull the walls closer about you, put the soom on a sort of reducing diet of dark colors. Warm shades, such as red, terra cotta, cocca, rese and the like, rather creep up on you and make a room seem smaller.

paper if the room is small because dark-colored baseboards, doors, mantles, window and cornices all minimize the size of the room. If the room is very small, trim it a bit by pulling out some of these things such as a mantle to give more space.

Shape of Room Can Be Changed

Shape of Room
Can Be Changed
If the shape of the room rather than the size is your problem, there's a solution to that, too.
If the room is long and narrow try clong three wails with a plain and the an accentuating the fourth wall with a dark color or a bold pattern. This makes the room seem almost square. Another excellent way to increase the depth of one side of the room is by using scenic pattern. This makes the currant with plain or striped alor courtant with plain or striped alor courtant with plain or striped apper on the other three.

You may prefer to use contrasting colors to make a room longer or wider. To do this, choose two styles which harmonize yet present awalls with one pattern and both end walls with the other.

Cellings often are neglected when we do over a room, but treated properly they can be an important part of the decorative scheme.

Peasant Skirt

Alice of California cuts out this full-skirted peasant skirt dress with a slim top. Over the basic peasant dress is an "over-and-under" skirt which can be worn over the dress or under it (between the white beruffled petitional and the dress). The overskirt buttons on with a wide back overlap.

height of some height of the shade of color than that used in the walk shade of color than that used in the walk shade of colors shareh ight and also lower the apparent height of the room. Horizontal stripes also will lower the caping while vertical stripes have just the opposite effect. Still another method used for making the overtall room better proportioned is to lower the modding. Molding may be lowered 12 to 18 unches a deep valance or commencing with paper to match the rest of the wall.
