Father Writes His Little Daughter And Dies In Action

SPARTANBURG, S. C. (AP)—Seven-year-old Betty Foster got a birthday letter from her daddy in Korea last week. Last night she learned he was killed in action two days after he wrote her. "Happy birthday to my little girl on her seventh birthday. I hope you may have many more x's and that your Daddy and Mother can share the occasion with you in the peace and security of a free home and country. "Betty, I am over here in Korea x x x where men are killed, crippled or maimed for life, where little girls like you lose their Daddies to a cause—a cause that men have fought for all their lives so that little boys and girls may enjoy freedom of thought, religion and the right to live as they have been destined to live—as an American. "Be a good little girl x x x and as soon as Daddy comes home x x x I'll get you the doll that you wanted. "I'll have to go now, x x x. Be sure to say your prayers x x x."

IMMIGRANT CHILDREN OFFERED SHELTER

TEL AVIV, (AP)—Catholic authorities in Nazareth, (Northern Israel), have offered winter shelter to Jewish children now in cold-throated immigrant camps. At the same time the appeal to house such children in Jewish homes in established villages and towns has made good progress.

Doctors, Nurses And Technicians Shortage Grows

Quick Approval For Senator Hill's Bill Said 'Imperative'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senator Hill (D-Ala.) calls "imperative" quick approval of a bill providing federal aid for training badly needed doctors, nurses and technicians. The measure, of which Hill is the sponsor, is designed to meet shortages intensified by the expansion of the armed forces and other requirements. It has received unanimous approval from the Senate labor and public welfare committee. Hill said the bill is hoped for speedy approval in the upper house and yesterday that he had secured the support of the measure's federal grants to the States and approved cooperation with the State labor and public welfare committee.
