East End High School Reports Successful Year

By MABLE THOMAS LEE The East End High School of Rogersville reports a successful year in all phases of operation. The year's P-T-A has been faithfully toward raising the standards of the school to the State Accredited level.

The lunchroom program approximately 90 per cent of the children purchase meals daily in the school lunchroom. The principal and the teachers are formulating plans to increase the participation of the students in taking meals in the lunchroom.

The P-T-A worked untiringly trying to raise the needed funds to send books for equipment. Adequate library—one of the essentials for getting the school accredited. They did not reach this goal, however, they struggled toward it.

The Trustees and the parents showed very fine spirit in serving to the school affairs. Sunday, May 1 at 3 p. m., the school held its barcalaureus service. Rev. R. W. Wilmer delivered the inspiring message. Friday, May 6 at 7:30 p. m., the graduation exercises were held. Mrs. John H. Waddell, a member of the County Board of Education, delivered the address.

The principal, W. M. Ford plans to continue his graduate studies at New York University. His specialty in the field of Specialization. This will be another essential factor in raising the school toward accreditation.

The school expresses its thanks to the County Board of Education, the parents and friends for all their helpful suggestions. This is a successful year. W. M. Ford, principal.
